This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation. Under the environment with severe electrostatic discharge, the product may malfunction and requires user reset.

Warning: Changes or modifications to this unit not expressly approved by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

NOTE: This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio TV technician for help.

To Fire Pizza Discs:

1. Press down pizza slice on top of the van to open the side door and slide out the pizza launcher. This may need 2 presses to complete.
2. Load up to 8 pizza discs into the launch oven chamber.

3. Make sure the power switch is in the "ON" position.

4. Press the RED button to fire pizza discs one at a time.

Important:

Do not fire at people, animals or at eyes or face. Do not use projectiles other than that provided with this toy.

You can place any of the 4 Turtles in the hot chair when firing pizzas!
